

The European Banking Union Way out of the Crisis?

INVITATION

Expert meeting

Berlin, 21st March 2013
10:00 h – 17:00 h

Venue: Ver.di Headquarters,
Paula-Thiede-Ufer 10 *
Room: Aida

* The venue is five minutes walk from the railway and S-Bahn station Ostbahnhof

Programme

- 10:00 h Welcome: Dierk Hirschel, Head Dptm. Economic Policies, Ver.di
- 10:15 h The Banking Union in the Context of the EU-crisis
- What is the strategic purpose of the Banking Union in the context of the overall crisis management?
 - How does the Banking Union relate to other major issues of financial reform?
 - How is the configuration of interest among the major players?
- Speakers: Prof. Dominique Plihon, University Paris XIII
Lucas Zeise, Finance Columnist, Frankfurt/M.
- 11:30 h Coffee break
- 11:45 h Euro-Supervision
- Requirements for supervision
 - Does the new proposal meet the requirements? Is the attachment to the ECB the right approach?
 - Probable scenarios for 2013/14
- Speakers: Prof. Mario Tonveronachi, University of Siena
Christoph Crüwell BAFIN
Ute Meienberg, UNI Europa, Banking Stakeholder Group
- 13:00 h Lunch break
- 14:00 h Prevention: how to build a resilient & sustainable banking system
- Prevention versus resolution: recovery and resolution plans
 - Structural reforms to tackle; too big, too interconnected, too complex to fail too complex to manage, to supervise and to regulate
 - Universal banking or separation of commercial and investment banking
 - Splitting good from bad investment banking activities
- Speakers: Prof. Laurence Scialom, University Paris Ouest
Dr. Rainer Stollhof, SPD Project on Financial Regulation
- 15:30 h Crisis resolution: the recovery and resolution tools
- Recovery phase: automatic triggers or discretionary triggers
 - Resolution phase: Triggers: fail or likely to fail; bail in bonds, bridge bank, good banks/bad banks, resolution fund
 - When a bank can and cannot fail? How to prevent bank runs: who pays?
 - The German "Mini-Volcker Rule"
- Speakers: Christophe J. Nijdam, Equity research analyst, Paris
Duncan Lindo, Research Consultant, Finance Watch
NN German ministry of finance (tbc)
- 16:30 h Conclusion from civil society perspective
- Speakers: Thierry Philipponat, Finance Watch, Peter Wahl, WEED
- 16:55 h Farewell Dierk Hirschel, Ver.di
- 17:00 h End

With simultaneous translation English-German

Participation is free. For registration please send e-mail to: peter.wahl@weed-online.org

This conference is co-financed by the EU and the Ford Foundation.
The responsibility for the content lies exclusively with the organisers.